

Dear Manager:

Have you heard of Milton's Baking Company? They bake delicious all natural crackers and breads. I prefer to shop at your store, but unfortunately I have to go elsewhere to find and buy Milton's.

Milton's bakes a wide variety of fresh sliced bread and baked crackers that are artisan crafted for surprising flavor. Milton's has a loyal following of consumers (like me) that absolutely love them!

Please contact Milton's to get their products carried in your store. You can send an email to testimonials@miltons baking.com for distributors in your area.

I hope to see  here soon!
